Our Saviour's to Host Moravian Lovefeast

Simple Meal Offered During Service Has Roots in Early Christianity

FAIRFIELD, Conn., December 29, 2010 – Our Saviour's Lutheran Church will hold its fifth annual Moravian Lovefeast on Sunday, January 9, 2011 at 5:00 p.m., to celebrate the season of Epiphany.

The Lovefeast, a tradition in the Moravian Church since 1727, takes its inspiration from the agape fellowship meal of the early Christians. During the service, the participants are served a simple meal, usually a cup of tea and a bun. Hymns from both the Moravian and Lutheran traditions will be sung, with music performed by the Our Saviour's Collegium Musicum and Youth Choir.

The first Lovefeast was served in Germany on August 13, 1727, following the Renewal of the Moravian Church. Moravians (officially called Unitas Fratrum or Unity of the Brethren) are spiritual descendants of the Czech reformer Jan Hus. The Moravian Church in America and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America have been in full communion, sharing ministers and ministries since 1999.

For more information, contact Our Saviour's at (203) 255-0545. The church is located at 160 Hill Farm Road (corner of Duck Farm Road) in Fairfield.
